

At School

We are starting our reading books this week! How exciting! The theme for the week is "at school". We will be reading about what we do at school and learning to write using this theme. The skills we will cover this week are: short a, reading for details, and writing sentences with capitals and punctuation marks at the end.

We will take our spelling test on Friday so please take a few minutes each day to practice writing the words. Five minutes is plenty, just enough that they get to know how to write each word.

We've been working really hard on listening and following directions, and cleaning up after ourselves! Please work on this at home, too. Thanks!

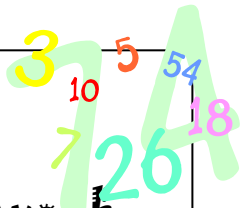

Snacks & Water Bottles

Please remember that your 1st grader may bring a healthy snack each day. Please, no cookies, cupcakes, candy, etc.

Also, we had a flavored water spill all over the floor already. It's a sticky mess. Please, no flavored water, Gatorade, etc. Just plain clear water.

Math

In math this week we are working on counting, reading, & writing numbers to 120. We are counting on from any number.

Happy birthday to Kallie, Emily, and Marshall who all celebrated birthdays last week!

Scholastic Books

Book orders are going home on Monday. Please return by Aug. 27th or you may order online. Remember, checks need to be made to Scholastic. Thanks!
